TO THE PATRONS

It will be noticed that with the present issue of the "LOTUS" (the beginning of its eighth volume), a slight change has been made in the cover and in the type. This has been found advisable owing to war conditions. It may, however, be regarded by many as an improvement, as have been other changes in the past.

It has doubtless been a pleasure to the patrons of the "LOTUS" to observe the progress made by the publication from its foundation—a small pamphlet with but two hundred patrons—to its present improved size and appearance with its greatly extended circulation, acquiring, as it has, a reading public of over fifteen thousand monthly.

All of this has been made possible through the interest taken in the magazine by its patrons, and their appreciation of the character and quality of the subject matter provided by the publishers.
